

Managed Services

Virtue's Internal Communications (IC) solutions allow companies to communicate with all their employees instantly, in a personal and emotive manner. The great flexibility of our Managed Services – from application areas to pricing – allows you to maximise communication spend, every time. All Managed Services are assigned dedicated project managers and provide online statistics.

Product Profile

- Dedicated Project Manager
- Online statistics
- Redundant event delivery
- Synchronised content
- Interactive functionality
- Indexing of on-demand event
- On-demand archiving

About IC Bespoke

A tailor made service that takes your internal communications to a new level.

Requirements for

Bespoke events are carefully gathered and can include: onsite testing, increased redundancy, signal acquisition in multiple locations and more.

About IC Advanced

Unique indexing and full search functionality, transform traditional webcasting into a powerful training and information tool.

About IC Effective

Designed with simplicity and cost-effectiveness in mind, it enables your internal communication events to reach every employee instantly.

About IC Call

IC Call delivers compelling audio communications cost-effectively. Reap the benefits of webcasting at a fraction of the cost.

“By using Virtue's Internal Communications Effective solution to conduct sales training sessions we have seen a dramatic decrease in cost of communicating with our European sales force, management visibility of sales training has increased, and my UK team is more knowledgeable of our product offering as reflected through our improved cross-selling.”

Interoute